About Me

While Living in Alice Springs, I've discovered a passion for helping people as a disability support worker. I've committed the last 5 years towards helping people to achieve their goals and increase their capacity. I have the most experience working with youth and adolescence. I have multiple certificates and diplomas, including Diploma in community services and Cert III in individual support.

I am committed to enhancing the welfare and well-being of clients, especially young people, through comprehensive support and engagement in activities that build their capacity. I am looking forward to hearing from you, and how I may be able assist you towards achieving your goals. I started my business as a Independent Support Workers - ASCS, Alice Springs Care Services as I believe I have what it takes to help the people towards a better more Independent future.
